Friday Newsletter

Golden Jumper

This week our theme for our golden jumper is perseverance.

EYFS – Lewis Edwards

KS1 – Noah Mayo

LKS2 – Haris Riaz

UKS2 Annalise Petty

EYFS

As part of our topic next half term, we will be learning about how to care for our oceans. We will be doing a collaborative art project using recyclable materials. Please could you save any plastic bottle tops and ring pulls and send into school.

Ascension Day

Yesterday we celebrated Ascension Day. All the children worked in their house groups to create kites, spiral prayers and ascending Jesus pictures.

Jubilee Celebrations.

It was wonderful to see all the children dressed in their red, white and blue for the celebrations. Thank you for all the donations of boxes to be used on stalls at the Jubilee celebration on Saturday 4th June.

Thank you to Milnthorpe Chippy for the food they provided and the amazing cake. Thank you also to all the staff, especially the lunchtime staff, for their hard work and enthusiasm for the celebrations.

The children had a fabulous afternoon with a picnic on the field followed by Maypole dancing, cricket and games. We also planted the 10 Rowan trees donated to us by Beetham Nurseries for the celebration.

Author Visit by Sarah Dodds

Local author Sarah Dodds will be visiting school on the morning of Thursday 9th June to read some of her latest children's books and lead some related activities to children from EYFS/ KS1 and KS2. Copies of her books may be pre-ordered and she will bring these on the day. There are 3 picture books suitable for younger readers (her latest one is 'Legs') and one for older readers /KS2 called 'The Keeper of Secrets' (letters/order forms were given out to children this week)

Reminders

No football on the playground before or after school.

Swimming for KS1 on Tuesday afternoon.
